

about us

matilda veneer is Australia's largest and leading manufacturer of timber veneer. matilda veneer is renowned for sourcing and manufacturing natural, unique and beautiful veneers and plywood for architectural specification from Australia and around the world.

matilda veneer's ethos is to source select grade, special and hard-to-find timbers and produce veneers at maximum efficiency with unrivaled quality.

matilda veneer works closely with architects, designers and specifiers to ensure design goals are met and surpassed and use an elite selection of companies distributing and pressing our veneers for supply to builders, joiners, shop fitters, cabinet makers and the general public.

In addition to a beautiful selection of natural timber veneers, our product offering includes a range of high quality and unique plywood products offering users natural, unique and beautiful solutions to design challenges. These products include our revolutionary Fireply X® and Matilda Fireply® (Group 2 certified plywood products), Hoop Pine and Birch plywood and Matilda Lite Ply (lightweight plywood).

As the Australian leader in the manufacture of timber veneer, matilda veneer is passionate about explaining the processes involved in producing veneer and detailing why this amazing product stands alone as the premier decorative product. With this in mind, matilda veneer is proud to be certified by the Australian Institute of Architects to deliver professional development presentations (CPD) to architects. These presentations explain, step-by-step, the production processes to ensure that the end results always exceed expectations.

Our products have been used in multiple award winning and leading architectural projects such as the Sydney Opera House, the distinctive Dr Chau Chak Wing Building in Sydney, the 'Kitchens' at Robina Town Centre, Bunjil Place, the Melbourne Cricket Ground and international airport terminals. Our veneers and plywood feature in hotels, hospitals, universities, shopping centres and homes of distinction throughout the world.
